Information & Application

The Art of Nature Summer Camp

July 17th – 21st
9:00- 3:30 pm daily

2nd - 6th Graders Welcome

Combining Art, Science,
Nature & Fun Adventures

The Art of Nature Summer Day Camp is one of the many examples of Kootenai Environmental Alliance's commitment to the community.

KEA is Idaho's oldest grassroots conservation organization.

KEA presents its 5th annual day camp for kids

Join in the fun! 5 fun filled days of art, science and nature activities to learn and reinforce the nature themes of each day.

Teaching Artists Chelsea Cordova, Jill McFarlane and others will connect art with nature projects to bring an interdisciplinary experience to deepen your child's knowledge and bond to our natural world.

Base camp is at the North Idaho College Children's Center.

We will take excursions to local areas like the Community Roots Gathering Garden, the City Beach and local sites to engage in art and science activities to learn about bugs.

Tuition is $200 for the week for each child.

This includes snacks, art supplies, artists and biologists.
